Re: Invitation for Nominations – 2025 UBC Distinguished University Scholars

We are pleased to open the 2025 Distinguished University Scholar program. UBC's Distinguished University Scholars are faculty members who have distinguished themselves as exceptional scholars in research and/or teaching & learning. Up to 10 new Distinguished University Scholars will be named in 2025.

We invite all Faculties to encourage the nomination of eligible candidates, and to submit nomination packages to the UBC Vancouver Provost Office (within the allowable number of nominations per Faculty – please see the chart below). The deadline for submissions to the Provost Office is September 5, 2025.

Faculties with multiple departments should establish an earlier internal deadline to allow time for adjudication within the Faculty prior to submitting nominations to the Provost Office.
