Canada Research Chair – Tier 2 – Marketing

The University of British Columbia (Vancouver Campus) Sauder School of Business is accepting applications from outstanding individuals who currently hold a faculty appointment in the UBC Sauder School of Business for a Tier 2 Canada Research Chair (CRC) with a specialization in Marketing, to support an existing area of research excellence in the Faculty.

Tier 2 chairs are intended for exceptional emerging scholars and the successful nominee should be within 10 years of receiving their Ph.D. To meet the criteria of the program, nominees must be excellent emerging world-class researchers who have demonstrated particular research creativity; have demonstrated the potential to achieve international recognition in their fields in the next five to 10 years; as chairholders, have the potential to attract, develop and retain excellent trainees, students and future researchers; and be proposing an original, innovative research program of high quality.

Applicants should normally be no more than 10 years from their highest degree at the time of nomination. Applicants who are more than 10 years from having earned their highest degree (and where career breaks exist, such as maternity, parental or extended sick leave, clinical training, etc.) may have their eligibility for a Tier 2 chair assessed through the CRC program's Tier 2 justification process.

Further information about CRC Chairs is available here:

<https://academic.ubc.ca/awards-funding/funding-opportunities/canada-research-chairs>.

The successful candidate must hold a tenure track Assistant Professor or tenured Associate Professor appointment in the Sauder School of Business at UBC. They must have an exceptional research profile and a Ph.D. in Marketing.

As part of one of the world's finest public universities, the Sauder School's mission is to pursue excellence in research and teaching to inspire and educate responsible leaders who improve business, drive innovation, and generate prosperity in British Columbia and throughout the world. Please see www.sauder.ubc.ca for more information on the Sauder School and http://www.sauder.ubc.ca/Faculty/People/Faculty_Openings for more information on employment in the Sauder School of Business.

Applications should include: 1) a letter of interest describing your qualifications and research plans for the position, 2) complete curriculum vitae, 3) names and contact information for four referees.

Applicants are asked to complete the following equity survey. The survey link for this ad is https://ubc.ca1.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_8vwljkQkA0UpSxn. Your participation is voluntary and anonymous. The information will not be used to determine eligibility for employment. The answers will be collated to provide data that can assist us in understanding the diversity of our applicant pool and identifying potential barriers to the employment of designated equity group members. This survey takes only a minute to complete. You may self-identify in one more of the designated equity groups. You may decline to identify in any or all of the questions by choosing "prefer not to disclose." Thank you in advance for your participation.

Equity and diversity are essential to academic excellence. An open and diverse community fosters the inclusion of voices that have been underrepresented or discouraged. We encourage applications from members of groups that have been marginalized on any grounds enumerated under the B.C. Human Rights Code, including sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, racialization, disability, political belief, religion, marital or family status, age, and/or status as a First Nation, Metis, Inuit, or Indigenous person. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply.

Please send your application via email to Jessie.lam@sauder.ubc.ca by August 10, 2018.

All positions are subject to review and final approval by the CRC Secretariat.
